

EPSA 2015 Call for Applications: Deadline extended until 24 April 2015!

Dear EPSA Friends,

Since the opening of the Call for applications on 5 February, EPSA 2015 has already attracted broad interest. However, to allow as many public administrations as possible to take part in this contest, the European Institute of Public Administration (EIPA) has decided to extend the deadline for the submission of applications until Friday 24 April 2015 (24.00 Brussels local time CET).

Don't miss out this opportunity to get recognition (3 top prizes) and visibility at the European level for your innovative, participatory and successful solutions to contribute in partnership to a better society!

It's not too late to apply! Go to our portal www.epsa2015.eu, register and apply, and become part of the EPSA 2015 experience. The EPSA 2015 is for you an excellent opportunity to present your work and to become part of an extensive European network of public sector excellence, in which you can benchmark your achievements with your peers and at the same time learn from each other.

In our next issue at the end of April we will report on the results of the Call for applications.

We look forward to receiving many innovative and inspiring submissions from all over Europe.
